

Info on the conference format

Due to the still unpredictable course of the Covid-19 pandemic, we have decided that the Bildungskongress will not be held as an on-site event. Making this decision was tough but we are now looking forward to planning an exciting online event.

We have termed our new conference format Digital Plus. Our team, a conference host and a small number of guests will guide you through the event from our conference stage in Muenster. Moreover, we are planning to film the conference opening and closing as well as some of our keynote lectures on the conference stage and broadcast them live via our digital platform.

The rest of the conference program will take place via video conferencing and webinars, which will partly also enable personal communication and discussions. Together with our contributors we are working to create varied and lively formats.

Conference registration opens on 1 April, 2021. To register, follow this link: <https://www.indico.uni-muenster.de/e/mbk2021>. Create an Indico profile, choose English under “My languages” and then scroll down and select “Registration – See details”. You can find an English language registration form entitled “Registration for regular participation”.

The conference fee has been reduced by 25 % in the digital format. The Early Bird rate (199 €) is valid until 30 June, 2021. Afterwards the conference fee is 214 €. CFP-contributors as well as students and nursery school teachers pay a reduced fee of 124 €. Payment can be made via credit card or invoice. Please note that payment needs to be made prior to completing the registration process. If you decide to pay via invoice, the registration will be temporarily interrupted but can be continued with an automatic link you receive once payment is completed. The deadline for cancellation with full refund is 25 August 2021.

We are happy to announce that Sally Reis, Rena Subotnik, Armin Nassehi and Bernd Ulrich are among our keynote speakers. A complete list of contributors and more information on the conference program as well as on the possibility to enroll for workshops with limited capacities will be available on our website soon. Registered participants will additionally be updated via e-mail.

If you have questions concerning the conference, feel free to contact us.

All best wishes on behalf of the congress team
